

Circle of Bloodshed

Skelator

With torch in hand they sail the seas upon their dragon ships
They hunger for the next kill
Blood lust takes control
Hatred swells they see their prize
The lives of the innocent
Screams arise, homes aflame

Odin's army of the damned
Spread their blood across the land

Face your demise
For the gods we raise our axes
Crush! Kill! Destroy!
We will take you all

Viking warriors raise their swords
Longboats hit the shore
The battle grows, the horn is blown
Berserker's rage reborn
Wolf-bear skins flood the fields as bloody corpses fall
Severed heads, shredded flesh

Odin's army of the damned
Spread their blood across the land

Face your demise
For the gods we raise our axes
Crush! Kill! Destroy!
We will take you all

Odin's army of the damned
Spread their blood across the land

Face your demise
For the gods we raise our axes
Crush! Kill! Destroy!
We will take you all

Face your demise
For the gods we raise our axes
Crush! Kill! Destroy!
