

Dream Dictator

Skelator

Turing off the highway, neon lights beside you, watching out...
Twitching in her nightgown, sleeping right beside you, passing out...

Lurking in the shadows, creeping up behind you, in your mind "You are mine"

Distorting all the facts and figures, taking all your hopes and dreams away... to yesterday

He fills your head with pain and lies

Fear, failure and cries

He comes to steal the rainbows from your eyes

He'll make you see black and white

He's the Dream Dictator

Dream Dictator

He comes to steal your mind

He comes to enslave your kind

You've got to keep the dream inside you, never let it out

Even if it takes over your soul

Hatred is the fire igniting your desire, let it out, scream and shout!

Chasing down your freedoms, breaking down his kingdom, we are p roud!

He's gonna make you fade away
