

Alive Again

Skeletal Family

This is the last time I'll cry for you,
the last time I'll try to get you
Only anger fills the hole
that was my heart.

Give me more, give me more, give me more, give me more again

Until you love me.
How did things get so messed up.
How did I trust you with my soul.
How could you betray me -
and then turn away.

Like a phoenix rising from the flames of hate.
Stronger and more beautiful.
You wither beneath my wings of fire.
You're nothing compared to me.

I'm alive, I'm alive, I'm alive, I'm alive again x3

I don't need you to love me.
