Soul Thrashing Black Sorcery

Skeletonwitch

Fear the blackness Fury of death Cower before the storm Swirling inferno Glorious evil Suffer before the horns From the shadows Bathed in blood Longing to burn your soul Fearsome fleshless hideous reaper Cataclysmic evil On pestilence and death it feeds Reaping souls for eternity Adorned with the mark of the beast The witch stands before you now Burning in demon light Condemned to serve the black It cares now for your cries You fall before it now Grovel with your last breath Your god can't save your soul Gaze into the face of death On pestilence and death it feeds Reaping souls for eternity Adorned with the mark of the beast Soul thrashing black sorcery
