

My Emotions

Skept

Listen to my emotions I'm letting out she came in a taxi I'm watching her as she's getting out. It's that pretty face and the sexy body that I'm checking out, and I nearly died when I saw them Ed Hardy shoes stepping out.

You know how much work I put into get this princess to my place, we can take it fast take it slow princess this ain't a race. Kiss my neck kiss my chest and kiss below my waist, what happens in the bedroom stays in the bedroom I ain't watching faze.

You're doing a madness to my head. (4x)

I ain't playing with you this ain't no game, we can look at each other in the mirror who said that we can't be vain.

Then I turn you round pick you up so you can see my name, I'm looking in your eyes so deep I think I see your brain.

Your sexy voice sounds sweet to the ear like a song Bob Marley sang, I wanna throw you in a ring give you a body drop and a power slam.

The way I start whistling in the bedroom just call me Macho Man or call me Junior call me Joseph or Ed Hardy Dan.

You're doing a madness to my head.

We ain't together so there's no breaking up and it don't look like we're gonna argue so there's no making up.

I can tell that I'm doing the right thing by the way she's shaking up, and I swear princess if this is a dream then I ain't waking up because...

You're doing a madness to my head.
