

You Lie

Skid Row

You lie to me a first time
You'll lie to me again
You pushed me out the front door
While some stranger's walking in
The way you say you love me is as ugly as sin
You lie, you lie, you lie

I waited up 'til morning just wondering what you'd say
You stumbled on your story 'cause the truth got in the way
You choked on your confession, but thought you had it saved
While someone else was jumpin' in my grave

You lie to me a first time
You'll lie to me again
You pushed me out the front door
While some stranger's walking in
The way you say you love me is as ugly as sin
You lie, you lie, you lie

I'm counting on the future, forgetting 'bout the past
Just knowing you're not honest, well I knew it wouldn't last
I'm trying to believe you but it's such a fucking chore
You lyin', cheatin' dirty little whore

You lie to me a first time
You'll lie to me again
You pushed me out the front door
While some stranger's walking in
The way you say you love me is as ugly as sin
You lie, you lie, you lie
You lie, you lie, you lie

You lie to me a first time
You'll lie to me again
You pushed me out the front door
While some stranger's walking in
The way you say you love me is as ugly as sin
You lie, you lie, you lie
You lie, you lie, you lie

You lie to me a first time
You'll lie to me again
You pushed me out the front door
While some stranger's walking in
The way you say you love me is as ugly as sin
You lie, you lie, you lie
You lie, you lie, you lie
You lyin' motherfucker
