Energy

Power is another word that I use to describe You Your mighty winds come in and blow me away Frightening, coming at me like lightning It's You that I fear, yeah, yeah I shake whenever You speak my name

And I'm surrounded You overpower me

You're a silent rage, you're a hurricane You are everything I cannot see and can't explain You're an enigma wrapped in a mystery Everywhere I go, I can't escape Your energy

Divine is a reality that You define You defy time I see You in everything in fire and wind and rain Captured is just the word to capture how I feel when I still You are what I crave You set me free I want to be Your slave

And I'm surrounded You overpower me

I can't escape Your energy (8x)

Power is another word that I use to describe You Your mighty winds come and blow me away

I can't escape it I can't escape, no, no, no, no... Everywhere I go, I can't escape Your energy Skillet
