Never Going Back

Can you hear me? Never Can you hear me? Never Can you hear me? I used to be caged Never stood my ground I lived like your slave Those days are over now Oh no You will never know me Let go You will never own me No more Like before Never gonna be Never gonna be yours All my life I'm never going back I never say die And I ain't starting yet Tell no lies I'm never going back My back's against the wall But I know who I am Never go Never goin' back Never Can you hear me? Never Like an angel of light You pull me close again Devil in a disguise The teeth are sinking in Oh no You will never know me Let go You will never own me No more Like before Never gonna be Never gonna be yours All my life I'm never going back I never say die And I ain't starting yet Tell no lies I'm never going back My back's against the wall But I know who I am
