Skillet

And the future's robbing my soul
I'm face to face with my futility
And my life is slipping away
Inhaling my mortality

R: I'm a beep, I'm a vapor
I'm just a blinking light
I'm a beep, I'm a vapor
And I'm about to evaporate
I'm a beep, I'm a vapor
I'm just a blinking light
I'm a beep, I'm a vapor
I'm a vapor

And I feel my skin's just a shell
Underneath is my reality
I breathe dimensions unknown
It conquers my mortality

R:

Will the madness end?
While my body decays my soul does not
Death is just the beginning

And the future is robbing my soul
Inhaling my mortality
