

For Those Who Have Fallen In Battle

Skiltron

Trying to get what I have in mind,
I felt a need go far awy from here.

To a place where I can find myself.
Pure and real, honest and free.
And now I am there.

Come and join the Clan.
Lift your spirit and raise your hands.
It's our meaning of life.
A nation of freedom where Pagans stand.

Just believe in yourself.
It must be your own will, share it today.
It's a reason to live.
A Nation of freedom 'till eternity.
