

Proceed with Caution

Skindred

They never realize that them come tell,
we live no tell down the world's on fire.
It don't matter what you may hear,
you can trust a thief but not a liar.

Ten seconds are counting:
One, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten.
Keep dropping your bombs and having your fun.
Proceed with caution.

We know!
That we've fallen apart.
We know!
That we still here in dark.
We know!
We have been from the start.

Buck up the place, then mash up the place down!

YOU'VE TAKEN more than you can use.
Now do you hear me?
NOTHING'S LOST for us to do.

I stay in the night. I stay in the night. I stay in the night.

Ca-ca-ca-ca calling in the world and on all the fools,
who teached them in school, like everything's fine.
Yo-yo-yo you know we come spread out your bonds.
Run with lies.

Ten seconds are counting:
One, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten.
Keep dropping your bombs and having your fun.
Proceed with caution.

We know!
That we've fallen apart.
We know!
That we still here in dark.
We know!
We have been from the start.

Buck up the place then mash up the place down!

YOU'VE TAKEN more than you can use.
Now do you hear me?
NOTHING'S LOST for us to do.

You know, that we can make it.
You know, that we can make it.

YOU'VE TAKEN more than you can use.
Now do you hear me?
NOTHING'S LOST for us to do.

We've taken all that we can.
We've taken all that we can.

We've taken all that we can.
We've taken all that we can.

Proceed with caution!
