

"I've got no fucking monitor"
"I've got no fucking monitor"
all your fucking monitors
Seeing through the keyhole
Watching master beating her
Creep her
Faced with death
you
Great to be a k-9 closer to your rich perversions
Wouldn't you think I have no thought
Wouldn't you think I have no thought
It's a strange decision when the foe bears the control
When with I sit in dung crying through a purr-snore
When I've got the hunger rest so he'll be there
With the last attachment food withdrawal I cannot bear
Simple calculation now the steps are Shot claw Vision recked
K-9
(?voices in backgrnd)
It's not fit to piss in
Why not move so I won't stay
Kick me out in out
Worry Open your eyes thanks for a kick
Feign emotion don't turn around
K-9
