

Mirror Saw

Skinny Puppy

Through the window, blowing in, message ensured walk within car passes terminal empty cracks started showing through unlisted mystery a dead child was thrown through a window wind opens windows carry promises true will un leash us dogs bite flesh, biting, exposing, freezing the soul, whirlwind blowing through the crashes ceiling no fantasies gone ages ago crashes through privacy gone ages ago freezes hands, pale, lighter, frozen paintings, illumination, illumination gone, illumination, illumination gone, illumination not wrong, sides heaving, chest boxed in, I will find the real you/finally heal you, lighter, hand in smokes, my treasures, there to know, I write a note, tossed aside, tossed aside, shines through a powder, baby the real you, blood shines through a powder, reads the real you, love shines through a powder, feel the real you, shines through a powder, final curtain, what's become of me and you?
