

When you pave a road with good intention,
never mind the destination.
Drugs, guns, and anarchy.
Blood, guns, and sodomy.
Mutually assure destruction,
backing down is not an option.
Drugs, guns, and anarchy.
Blood, guns, and sodomy.
I hope you switch yourself.
You gotta believe in me,
I am everything. (I am everything.)
I am the final step you take towards insanity.
You gotta believe in me,
I am everything. (I am everything.)
I am the only one still left in your reality.
You gotta believe, in me!
You gotta believe, in me!
You dug a hole and fell inside,
your perfect world was compromised.
Drugs, guns, and anarchy.
Blood, guns, and sodomy.
You still don't know who the hell you are.
You're only worried about the balance on your credit card
Drugs, guns, and anarchy.
Blood, guns, and sodomy.
I hope you switch yourself.
You gotta believe in me,
I am everything. (I am everything.)
I am the final step you take to watch your sanity.
You gotta believe in me,
I am everything. (I am everything.)
I am the only one still left in your reality.
You gotta believe, in me!
You gotta believe, in me!
TV sells hypocrisy, it's feeding off our apathy.
Above the surface all as well, dig a bed and go to Hell.
Just put a bullet in my head.
How long you would be left off dead?
Just shut your mouth and close your eyes.
Reality's a lie.
You gotta believe in me,
I am everything. (I am everything.)
I am the final step you take to watch your sanity.
You gotta believe in me,
I am everything. (I am everything.)
I am the final step you take to watch your sanity.
You gotta believe in me,
I am everything. (I am everything.)
I am the only one still left in your reality.
You gotta believe, in me!
You gotta believe, in me!
