

(Too Much) Confusion

Skrewdriver

All the counselors, in Blackpool
With their poxy cars, can just fuck off
You're much too old, to persecute us
Bet your sick about the local publicity huh? Thank you!

Chorus:

Too much confusion
Too much confusion
Too much confusion, out there

(?), spouting shit
Well you ain't too convincing
You know you can't fool everybody
All the violence, all the reporters sniffing around Tomorrow's headlines, we all know who's gonna get the blame, do n't we huh?

(Repeat Chorus)

There's so many people, condemning me
They're just trying to dictate, tell me what to think Well I don't need your prayers, I don't need your write-ups
And I don't need your putdowns, so just go and mess with someon e else's life will ya?

(Repeat Chorus)
