

All I Ask of You

Skrillex

In comes the dawn
I've fallen asleep with my head pressed against
Your flaws
Oh my love

And something got in the way
And your soul turned black as the sun grows somber
Took my heart
And my love

All I ask of you
All I ask of you
Just open up a little bit more
Just open up a little bit more

All I ask of you
All I ask of you
Just open up a little bit more
Just open up a little bit more
(Open up a little bit more)
(Open up a little bit more)

Just open up a little bit more
(Open up a little bit more)

Open up a little bit more
(Open up a little bit more)

All I ask of you...
...open up a little bit more...

All I ask of you
All I ask of you
Just open up a little bit more
Just open up a little bit more
(Open up a little bit more)

All I ask of you
All I ask of you
Just open up a little bit more
Just open up a little bit more
(Open up a little bit more)
(Open up a little bit more)

Open up a little bit more
(Open up a little bit more)

Open up a little bit more
Open up a little bit
Open up a little bit more...

Open up a little bit more
(Open up a little bit more)

All I ask of you
All I ask of you
Just open up a little bit more

Just open up a little bit more
(Open up a little bit more)
(Open up a little bit more...)
