

Seek the Old Man for Knowledge

Skullview

I gaze upon a gleaming light
It hit my skin and I melted away
My body seemed to dissolve in the flame
I seek for knowledge
From the man in the tree
I must find wisdom
For the knowledge is gained
Search and you shall find your way
Follow the chariot in flight
No one else can guide you there
For you seek the knowledge of the light
Take me to the older man
For he knows a hidden place
Castles of truth and bravery
A dark glare upon his face
For pleasure is what you always seek
Yet you never seem to find

As harsh as death, their lesson learned
When you seek the old man for knowledge

For centuries I have awaited for this day
And now I have awakened
From my dreams again
I shall seek the truth and knowledge
From the old man
The wisdom of my years and knowledge
To be gained again

Seek the old man... for knowledge
Seek the old man... for knowledge
Seek the mad man, mad man, mad man
Seek the mad man, mad man, mad man

For centuries I have awaited for this day
And now I have awakened
From my dreams again
I shall seek the truth and knowledge
From the old man
The wisdom of my years and knowledge
To be gained again

Seek the old man... for knowledge
Seek the old man... for knowledge
Seek the mad man, mad man, mad man
Seek the mad man, mad man, mad man

Searching for truth and bravery
The old man will guide you there

You search for him and you'll see
The knowledge gained from thee
The truth from the burning sun
Call his name and he shall come

This kingdom the old man has roamed
That gives you gifts from the throne

Knowledge lost you dare to see
The power that gives you strength

Search and you shall find your way
Follow the chariot in flight
No one else can guide you there
Seek knowledge from the light
Take me to the older man
For he knows of a hidden place
Castles of truth and bravery
A dark glare upon his face

For centuries I have awaited for this day
And now I have awakened
From my dreams again
I shall seek for truth and knowledge
From the old man
The wisdom of my years and knowledge
To be gained again

Seek the old man... for knowledge
Seek the old man... for knowledge
Seek the mad man, mad man, mad man
Seek the mad man, mad man, mad man
