

Cheap Honesty

Skunk Anansie

I know too well, I know these lies

I've seen them smothered in sweet ridicule

A seedy smile, they think they've scored

Cadd9 Gm6 A7 A7 sus4 A7

But I know morning comes and babes a lone again

Dm Cadd9 Gm7(add13)

Too alone again

So what can I do with cheap honesty

You giving me more than I can see

But I'm too cool to say

That I want it all my way

Get blasted by this sincerity

I wish I had, the streets full view

These people screaming

Through their settled loves

So I pretend, so mellowed out

Too teasing, weak enough to long for

Home again, lovely home again
