

Diving Down

Skunk Anansie

I should be walking on air
But I'm drowning with my Hands around your neck
Current is strong
Should I take you with me
Breath forever gone
I should have broken my fault
I should stand up for myself
For what is worth.

You are all I see
As I lose my dream
Still I keep on diving,
Keep on diving down down down

I should be floating on air
But I'm falling slowly
Drag you down oh well
Moment is long
No one stays to watch my black pray to hell
Our sentiment go
I will stand up for myself
For what is worth.

You are all I see
As I lose my dream
Still I keep on diving
Keep on diving down down down

Cause there's a hole
That I see
There's a hole
Coming back to me
Cause there's a hole
That I see
Coming back back back

Still I keep on diving
Keep on diving down down down

You are all I see
As I lose my dream
Still I keep on diving
Keep on diving down down down down
