

God Loves Only You

Skunk Anansie

His men have taken all the jewels you gave him
Your sweatin' shakin' cos your god loves only you
I am one again
I am one again
I am born again
I am born again
Your eyes shine brighter
He takes you higher
The dawn is breaking over girls half naked
Your soul is taken cos your god loves only you
I am one again
I am one again
I am born again
I am born again
Your eyes shine brighter
He takes you higher
Our world is changing
Cos your god loves only you
Cos your god loves only you
