

Infidelity (Only You)

Skunk Anansie

lost infidelity, we never said a word
so black and white you see it's all the lies we've heard in my mind nothing makes sense i'm nothing you can't have cracked up to disagree, that's all we've ever had

you, only you, only you only you can't be the one x2 your secret smile so quaint in memories fortold

laughing so viciously, your concience has been sold in my face there's no more joy i'm all that i should be cracked infidelity, that's all you are to me

only you can't be the one be the one x4

we don't talk anymore x2 we don't care anymore x2
