

Love Someone Else

Skunk Anansie

Stacey's got a brand new girl
She likes to play with sugar 'til it makes sweet pearls
She likes to taste the danger, makes her feel complete
You like to be the resonance between her feet

But she don't wanna listen anymore
She won't put on the pressure though you beg for more
You're like a viper in the night
Her time running out before you're ready to strike

She makes you wanna take someone
She makes you wanna take someone out
She makes you wanna take someone
She makes you wanna take someone out
She makes you wanna love someone
(She makes you wanna love someone else)
She makes you wanna love someone, oh
(Love someone else)
She makes you wanna love someone

Trevor's got a brand new boy
He can make it easier to give you joy
Yeah!
He's the little runaround for your hard cash
Lets the winner run around until they crash

But he don't wanna listen anymore
He wants to be a bigger dog instead of your whore
He's spending your infatuation spending too much
Instead of playing gigolo and taking his cut

He makes you wanna take someone
He makes you wanna take someone out
He makes you wanna take someone
He makes you wanna take someone out
He makes you wanna love someone
(He makes you wanna love someone else)
He makes you wanna love someone, oh
(Love someone else)

He makes you wanna love someone
(He makes you wanna love someone else)
He makes you wanna love someone, eh
(Love someone else)
He makes you wanna love someone
Makes you wanna love someone else
