Talk Too Much

Skunk Anansie

Maybe I should be more discrete serve you up some sugary sweet I could be the wildest of childs that's not a real feat Blessings come but favors they go troubled by the whispers they know I could sink but I'm not the type I don't need to hide

You want me now
But that's not enough
Cos I want you for a lifetime
You say it loud but you talk too much
I still want you for a lifetime today

I can leave but I stay to pray maybe on my knees you'll fail no one moved so no one got hurt this could be the day that you'll learn...today.
