

You Do Something To Me

Skunk Anansie

You do something to me
Something deep inside
Hanging on the wire
For love I cannot find

You do something wonderful
Chase it all away
Mixing my emotions
That throws me back again

Hanging on the wire, yeah
Waiting for the change
I'm dancing through the fire
Just to catch a flame an' feel... real again

Hanging on the wire, yeah
Waiting for the change
I'm dancing through the fire
Just to catch a flame an' feel... real again

You do something to me
Hoping to get close to
A peace I can't find

Dancing through the fire, yeah
Just to catch a flame
Just to get close to...
Just close enough... to feel again

You do something to me
Something deep inside
