You don't know just how to start me up
Don't know how to get me going on

Something's wrong between the two of us
I'm not a robot but I feel like one
One two three four

Head to ground
I don't ever want the beat to stop

Speaking without a sound
You try to call me but you're breaking up

And all I can hear is one
And all I can hear is one

Don't know how to shut you off
Don't know how to keep this going on

I feel like I'm about to rust
Ruin my heart I'll buy another one
One two three four

Head to ground
I don't ever want the beat to stop

Speaking without a sound
You try to call me but you're breaking up
And all I can hear is...

I just want to hear your heart

Wake me up or I will keep my Head to the ground
I don't ever want the beat to stop

Speaking without a sound
You try to call me but you're breaking up
And all I can hear is one.
