

Tennis Elbow

Sky Sailing

Ohh
Cell phones and travel stations
Ringtones and new relations
Say hello to all your friends for me
Several calls are made to Thailand
Wound up in Prince Edward Island
And my head feels like it's ready to blow

I served and scratched a rainbow
So curved, I felt the pain go
Through my joints
And now I don't wanna play
Swinging down, I sent the birdie
Downtown, At 7:30
And I'm convinced that I've got tennis elbow

We are lost in the sound
Close your eyes, and I will twirl you around
We are lost in the sound
Close your eyes, and I will twirl you around
We are lost in the sound
Close your eyes, and I will twirl you around
