

It Sucks

Skye Sweetnam

It's just simple kissing
No one has to ever know
What she doesn't know won't hurt her
As long as I don't let it show
And we'll keep it just between us
Bottled up inside
Just our little secret
I'll be playing dumb and acting shy

Goin crazy for a week
(crazy for a week)
Your Girlfriend's gonna freak
(she's gonna freak)
Because I know that I'd be freaking too
Cause that's the thing that girlfriends do
It's so frustrating you're not the type that I should be dating
No matter where i go or what I do
It sucks cause I wanna be with you you you you
Found a lame excuse to call you

Just to hear you on the phone
Talked a million miles an hour
Pretending we were all alone
And if only for a moment
It felt like you were really mine
But no one wants a cheater
Even if the boy is fine

Goin crazy for a week
(crazy for a week)
Your Girlfriend's gonna freak
(she's gonna freak)
Because I know that id be freaking too
Cause that's the thing that girlfriends do
It's so frustrating you're not the type that I should be dating
No matter where i go or what I do
It sucks cause I wanna be with you you you you you you you you
