Love Show

Sit down, give me your hand I'm gonna tell you the future I see you, living happily With somebody who really suits ya Someone like me

Stand still Breath in Are you listening

You don't know Somebody's aching Keeping it all in Somebody won't let go Of his heart but the truth is It's painless Letting your love show

Break down. Give me some time I don't want the fear to confuse ya Right now, it's so wrong But maybe it's all in the future with Someone like you

Stand still. Breath in. Are you listening

You don't know Somebody's aching. Keeping it all in Somebody won't let go Of his heart but the truth is It's painless Letting your love show

Maybe truth, maybe lies Made me want you Maybe dumb, maybe wise I don't know

Somebody's aching Keeping it all in Somebody won't let go Of his heart but the truth is It's painless Letting your love show

You don't know Somebody's hurting Holding it all in Somebody can't let go Of his heart but the truth is It's painless Letting your love show Skye

Letting your love show
