

Cursed by Belief

Skyfire

Behold here lies the godless world
of defiance as fragile walls
These shallow ties of blood are already destined by time

Unfold the endless wave of decadence as light disappears Commence the final countdown to this damnation game Clear your mind tell me what's real The answer you find is always coloured by your belief

Unsloved is the question of guilt and innocence as chaos rise Historic acts of boredom can't be undone

Believer now choose your fate Illusions from the past have made the outcome reversed Believer now enter the gate Meet with the darks side or forever be cursed

So you mortal soul the choice you make is yours
The storm is coming and nothing can change its course

Behold here lies the godless world
of defiance as fragile walls
These shallow ties of blood are
