

Rise and Decay

Skyfire

Invested everything in expectations Gave away it all Infested is the outcome
But still it's craving for more

Consideration is What is feeding it
An everlasting
Stream of doubt Degeneration process
Is commencing
And it is taking its toll

Rise and decay
There is no escape
...
We should pay the price

In times like these Diminished in a second
The warning came to late Without reaching it's final destination

...no where wanting caution for life like a stab in the back digging out, everyone cheer

Suppressed, really?
What is there more to see?
Suppressed...

It was just an illusion

glancing with an empty stare i just cannot believe focus attention
this is for real, this is now by now there is no turning back ones need is the others greed no one walks away, from this alive
