

Clear Blue Sky

Skylar Grey

Yeh yeh, yah yah yah, yeha yah, yeha yah

[Verse 1]

My dear, it's true
You're trouble just like me
We're black, and blue
And in love with misery.
But you can have my darkness
You can have my black dress
Take away my emo
I don't really need this
I'm getting in my own way
Getting high on heartbreak
And all the shit that you say
It's making my world all grey

[Hook]

I don't wanna stay here
Cause everyday it rains here
Underneath that clear blue sky
Even though it's summer
All I hear is thunder
Underneath this clear blue sky

Yeh yeh, yah yah yah, yeha yah, yeha yah

[Verse 2]

Don't blame, yourself
I let you drag me down
But this place, is hell
I finally see that now
So you can have my dark clouds
Gotta let my hurt down
Take away my emo
I think I've had enough now
I'm getting in my own way
Getting high on heartbreak
And all the shit that you say
It's making my world all grey

[Hook]

[Bridge]

But I'm not saying that I'm gonna start going to church
Not saying that I should pull it to work
Just saying for once I'm putting myself first
Putting myself first, putting myself first
So I'm leaving this town for good,
Gotta gotta get out of this neighborhood
Just like you never ever thought I could,
Never thought I could, never thought that

[Hook]
