

Kill for You

Skylar Grey

Ooooooh

Ooooooh

You gon' make out to me leave her
You left that shit and you true
You make me come with mother
Baby, I'd kill for you
You gon' make out to me leave her
You left that shit and you true
You make me come with mother
And, baby, I'd kill for you

Boy, what a wonder
I'd be gone for you
You're a boy I'd never thought to love
And if you'd ever be caught by my side
You'd feel my heart
And if I'd ever be thrown into the fire
You fuel my heart
Boy, I'd give my for you
We don't got to do
It's
You gon' make out to me leave her
You let that shit and you true
You make me come with mother
And, baby, I'd kill for you

Boy, what a wonder
I'd be gone for you
You're a boy I'd never thought to love
And if you'd ever be caught by my side
You'd feel my heart
And if I'd ever be thrown into the fire
You fuel my heart
Boy, I'd give my for you
We don't got to do
It's
You gon' make out to me leave her
You let that shit and you true
You make me come with mother
And, baby, I'd kill for you

Hoping they do
If he wants me too

See, I don't really understand it
Forgive me for being so panicked
But picture this, I would let you eat my flesh, if we were stranded
And I swear it's not your romantic
Cast-away, like it's full of human genius-sweets magic Boy I'm a sweet girl, all you gotta do is ask it
[?], leave 'em in a casket
I got a room full of
You gon' make out to me leave her
You let that shit and you true
You make me come with mother
Baby, I'd kill for you

You gon' make out to me leave her
You let that shit and you true
You make me come with mother
And, baby, I'd kill for you
