

I Can't Find Love Tonight

Skylark

The Guardian Angel:

Tonight I wanna be so kind, behind the saddest steps of love.

Tonight there is no love around, but the answer will come.

Tonight I get a malice wild inside the ancient wing of love.

I guess the space will meet our life until the answers will come.

I wanna lay my spirit dying. I wanna infiltrate my soul (it's a part me).

There is no way to take the time 'cause I can't find some love tonight.

But I can't find some love.
