

The Highest Mountain

Skyline

I can see no end running through runningthrough the maze.
Where's our love when we're running through running through a blaze .
I can feel our lives spinning through spinning through a daze.
We will fight the wrong
running through running through that maze.

I'll climb the highest mountain I'll do it for you Until you reach for something something worth defining you.

Listen ,believe me Together we can be I'll make the first step to get back the smile on your face It's not all down cause I see my face in your eyes Need you...there're no lies.

Moving on to anotherpage.
Lock all problems in a cage
And everything is great
Let us never fail
Just pursue it Take my soul and hold it When something's ruined , repair it Don't stick your head in the ground
Don't panic when in doubt.
