Ginny Ginny Ginny

Every Saturday, she spends a night on the tiles.
Every Sunday morning, never early to rise.
Back to work on Monday with the sleep in her eye.
She's late, so she dives.
Every Tuesday evening, stays in washing her hair.
I phone her up on Wednesday, find there's nobody there.
Working late on Thursday, oh 'cos Fridays the day, when she gets her pay.

Ginny, gotta get it while you can
She ain't about to start no family plan
Ginny Ginny gets some dandy handy man so she won't change
No she's never gonna change yeah

Always takes a week in the winter to ski.
She goes as Mrs Smith so she gets it for free.
Late again on Monday says her plane was delayed, or so she says
Always said she wants to find a millionaire
But he must be one with understanding to spare
Cos Ginny ain't the girl a man can tie down
She's sure been around

Ginny, gotta get it while you can
She ain't about to start no family plan
Ginny Ginny gets some dandy handy man that she won't change
Oh No no
Ginny, gotta get it while you can
She ain't about to start no family plan
Ginny Ginny gets some funny money handy man that she won't change
No she's never gonna change yeah

Ginny Ginny Ginny

Every Saturday, she spends a night on the tiles.
Every Sunday morning, never early to rise.
I can't afford to buy her any diamonds or pearls
She ain't one of the girls

Ginny, gotta get it while you can
She ain't about to start no family plan
Ginny Ginny gets some funny money handy man that she won't change, no
Ginny Ginny, gotta get it while you can
She ain't about to start no family plan
Gotta find herself some funny money handy man, that she won't change
No she's never gonna change, yeah

Oh Get it get it
Ginny Ginny gonna get it get it
Ginny Ginny gonna get it get it
