

I'm a Talker

Slade

Throw another log on the fire
Fill another glass with desire
Thank the Lord, if you're borde
I've run out of stories to tell
Time for bed - how's your head?
I must say you look very well.

[Chorus]

Cos I'm a talker, I'm a teller, I'm an army,
I'm a one, I'm a speaker, I'm a spoker
And my star sign is a two sided son - now I'm one.

Throw another smoke around the room
I think I'm gonna pass pretty soon
Thank the lord, that we scored:
I feel like I've known you so long.
One last drop then we'll stop,
I'm happy that you came along.

[Chorus Repeat]

A little bit of music ev'ry day
Is bound to take your blues all away
Thank the lord, if you're bored
I feel like I've known you for years
One last drop then we'll stop
Here's to your health - I'll say cheers!

[Chorus Repeat]
