

Lock Up Your Daughters

Slade

Yeh yeh yeh
Sometimes you're acting the fool
Sometimes you're breaking the rules
Sometimes you want to run away
Sometimes you stay out of school

But it's a dirty old town and you know where it's where we all belong,
Tell your mama back home coz she was just the same when she was young
I want to give you some advice

Lock up your daughters right now
It will give you a smile on your face
Lock up your daughters somehow
This is the time ' the time and the place.

Sometimes you whip up a storm
Don't get to bed until dawn
Sometimes you get a little high
You'll wish you'd never been born

Well it's a crazy old world everybody's got to get along Tell your mama back home coz she was just the same when she was
I tell you right now.

Lock up your daughters right now
It will give you a smile on your face
Lock up your daughters somehow
This is the time ' the time and the place.

You'd better lock up your daughters right now
It will give you a smile on your face
Lock up your daughters somehow
This is the time ' the time and the place.

Lock up your daughters right now
It will give you a smile on your face
Lock up your daughters somehow
This is the time ' the time and the place.
