

Still the Same

Slade

Oh we ain't goin' nowhere
We're just looking for somewhere
Whatever pulled us apart
Is still the same - It's still the same

Oh we're all one day older
Your hands are gradually colder
What made me weak at the knees
Is still the same - It's still the same

Oh you ain't been so tender
Your smell ain't how I remember
Although your eau de cologne
Is still the same - It's still the same
Oh I ain't a great romancer
And I ain't got all of the answers
What made me weak at the knees
Is still the same - It's still the same

Nothing's changed - I'm taking the blame
No nothing has changed - It's still the same
Nothing's changed - Start over again
It's all in the game - It's still the same - It's still the same

Oh I know nothing's changing
I know I need re-arranging
I know I'm taking the blame
it's still the same - It's still the same

Oh I know nothing's changing
I know there's nothing remaining
I know it's all in the game
it's still the same - It's still the same

Nothing's changed - I'm taking the blame
No nothing has changed - It's still the same
Nothing's changed - Start over again
It's all in the game - It's still the same
It's still the same - Nothing's changed
Start over again - It's all in the game
It's still the same - It's still the same
