

Silence

Snapshot

I want to know, what do you believe
I want to say but can I speak my mind
But you're gonna leave no matter what I say
Could you be real for once in your life

Silence is the weapon you use on me
Silence I never take my own advice
Silence should have gotten out when I could Silence and now I pay the price

I want to know when did you have the time
I want to know does the punishment fit the crime
I'd like a chance but the plea has been denied
Break the silence there's no turning back

Silence is the weapon you use on me
Silence another page in your history
Silence did I have a chance
Silence or was it made for me

Once again, love takes a turn for the worst
I'll be O.K. it isn't the first
She just decided she'd rather be friends
That's O.K. I'll just do it again and again and again
