Slapstick

Johnny wanted his life to go far
He went to town and bought a guitar
He had a friend and he showed him a chord
It was fun, but he started getting bored
He developed a need for fame and greed said a rock band is what I need
He bought a whammy bar and sold his soul
Him and his friends played corporate rock-n-roll

They played loud, you could hear it Johnny smelled just like teen spirit
Not too long playin' in clubs meeting lots of girls giving him lovin'
Then finally his big break came
His career lead to fortune and fame
It's Johnny and the Allstar Band

Talkin' about playin' on the radio with Johnny and the Allstarband and
Talkin' about playin' on the radio and in stadiums
Not gonna be a Punk rock Band
No no no na na no Johnny Oh No

His career was a big success
Rolling Stone cover in a state of undress
The ladies loved him, he made 'em cry
Johnny was the American Messiah
Gold records hanging on his wall,
" Johnny Rules " in the bathroom stall
Yeah he knew that the music was shit
It kept on paying, so he kept playing it

His success clearly climbed MTV video in the meantime Got the grunge look, lookin' unclean started making the ripoff scene.
His success was gone in a year
Wow! Johnny what a great career
