Dime Store Rock

Slash's Snakepit

Ain't it scary deep inside? Aren't you naked with no pride? Let me turn you on Oh, I can feed you lies Let me turn you on

It's no longer a game
And under your skin
I am ready to dive in
Parasites on television screens
Hide in the cracks and Underneath the seams

Dime store rock has warped your mind Melting faces, deep set eyes Let me turn you on Hey baby, what's your sign? Let me turn you on

Goes along with the territory She wants to fuck you tonight Please, smelling like a wino On her knees

Please, selling you her Gothic rocket dreams She's gonna burn you out to make it seem Like no one wants anything from you 'Cause you're an has-been on TV

It's no longer a game
And under your skin
I am ready to dive in
Let me turn you on
Turn you, turn you on
Yeah
