

Slow Grind

Slash

I'm a reckless heart
I'm a hard case on my own
Never pay no mind to anything I'm told

I've got no intention
Of ever bending the crown
I don't need redemption not at all

It's a slow grind
It's the same old story line
I'm in a slow grind
You've taken your soul, I'll take mine
Yeah

Never waste my time cause I ain't got time to waste
Never compromise when I know things will never change

No commendation
But still the same old song
No mediation for right or wrong

It's a slow grind
It's the same old story line
I'm in a slow grind
You took yours

It may took so long
To see your true intentions
It took so long
To come around
It took all down
But now it's time to mention
You were wrong, so wrong

It's a slow grind
It's the same old story line
I'm in a slow grind
You've taken your soul, I'll take mine

It's a slow grind
It's the same old story line
I'm in a slow grind
You've taken your soul, I'll take mine

It's a slow grind
It's a slow grind
It's a slow grind
You've taken yours but I'll take mine
