

On My Own

Slaughter

Trying not to remember, but the memories lead right□ back to you.
Right back to you it's hard to face the reality when you know there's nothing left to do

Many roads I've travelled, still I'm alone, wishing I could share this moment with you

Still I can't deny that I want you back, you've got me down on my knees, cause now I need ya, more than you know and here I am on my own.

No one knows what I'm feeling, and it's not easy without□ your love.
This emptiness that surrounds me, cause you all that I'm thinking of.

Many roads I've travelled, still I'm alone,
wishing I could share this moment with you.

Still I can't deny that I want you back,
you've got me down on my knees,
cause now I need ya, more than you know
and here I am on my own.
