Crisis feeds the lunacy All fear the new machine Consumed democracy returns a socialist regime

It's laid to rest without contest All hail the new incompetence Making you see what to believe A drone in the world of anarchy

Treachery, mysery, violence, insanity Scavengers closing in Covering the truth again Castrate society Fictional reality

Insecurity afraid of things you cannot see Words become the image of the enemy You cannot dissect what is correct Vengeance based on how things are said Can't see your side - conflicts with mine Frustrations lead to complete demise

Treachery, mysery, violence, insanity Scavengers closing in Covering the truth again Every trial conspiracy Compassion is the enemy Paralyse, criticize Breaking through the wall of lies

Suicidal hierarchy racing in reverse Everything that's done today will be tomorrow's curse

Screams in my head preced your death Can't hold the rage when the truth is shed Blind lead the blind line after line In a world too shallow to defy
