Skeletons of Society

Minutes seem like days Since fire ruled the sky The rich became the beggars And the fools became the wise Memories linger in my brain Of burning from the acid rain A pain I never have won

Nothing here remains No future and no past No one could foresee The end that came so fast Hear the prophet make his guess That paradise lies to the west So join his quest for the sun

Shades of death are all I see Fragments of what used to be

The world slowly decays Destruction fills my eyes Harboring the image Of a spiraling demise Burning winds release they fury Simulating judge and jury Drifting flurries of pain

Deafening silence reigns As twilight fills the sky Eventual supremacy Daylight waits to die Darkness always calls my name A pawn in this recurring game Humanity going insane

Shades of death are all I see Skeletons of Society Shades of death are all I see Fragments of what used to be (2x) Skeletons of Society

Minutes seem like days Corrosion fills the sky Morbid dreams of anarchy Brought judgement in disguise Memories linger in my brain Life with nothing more to gain Perpetual madness remains

Shades of death are all I see Skeletons of society Fragments of what used to be Skeletons of society
