Snuff

Slayer

Start with vanity Arrogance and greed Panic is my obsession No one can escape

The thrill is much too great
Despair is my creation
Everything obscene
Emanates from me

Homicide is on the rise It all begins now Take your final bow The camera never lies

Action, torture, misery Endless suffering Torment, agony

Captured for eternity Action You're the main attraction

Torture, misery
Endless suffering
Pleasing to the eye
To this you can't deny

No one else around Razor wire bound Insanity is so near Heart begins to seize

Watch you atrophy Reality is now clear Take a look inside Many more have died

The internet's an open door Everyone can see Dying brutally The audience begs for more

Action, torture, misery Endless suffering Torment, agony

Captured for eternity Action You're the main attraction

Torture, misery
Endless suffering
Pleasing to the eye
To this you can't deny

Murder is my future

Killing is my future Murder is my future Killing is my future

Torture, misery
Endless suffering
Pleasing to the eye
To this you can't deny

Murder is my future Killing is my future Murder is my future Killing is my future

Murder is my future Killing is my future Murder is my future Killing is my future

Murder is my future
