

The Fox

Sleater-Kinney

One the day the duck was born
The fox was watching all along
He said, "Land ho" when he saw the duck
Land ho and the duck saw him too

Shiny pretty fox, thought the duck

The duck came up onto the land
The fox saw her and he just laughed

"I could show you some shiny tricks", he said
"Come along we'll get our kicks," he said
"Land ho" for shiny tricks "Land ho" for me

Oh fox, is this love? Can you tell me? What is love?

That good looking fox only knew one trick
He could break hearts just lickety split
The duck knew this game she had to quit
And her own pond she was headed to quick
I'll go, I'll go and there's no looking back

Goodbye little fox
Goodbye my fox
