

We Go Tonight (Say It Again)

Sleeperstar

(Even if you've heard it enough, say say it again)
(If you've heard it enough, say say it again)
(If you've heard it enough, just say it again)
(If you've heard it enough, say say it again)

(If you've heard it enough, just say it again)
(If you've heard it enough, just say it again)
(If you've heard it enough, just say it again)

Right hand would tell us there's peace
With your left hand made war in the streets
You hang hope on the end of a gun
Bet you thought we would run
For sure, you thought we would run

Sun rises on the day it will end
The world's changed by the message we send Without blood there'll be nothing to save
They'll make a garden of graves
And weeds will cover our names

We go tonight
What are you waiting for?
We go tonight
What are you waiting for?

If you've heard it enough, say say it again
If you've heard it enough, say say it again
We go tonight

Marked men, as we take to the streets
Separated by a common belief
Revelation, time to pay for the lies
And see the fear in their eyes
Oh the fear in your eyes

The fight's coming and there's nowhere to run
Line's drawn, gonna feel what they've done
Adrenaline pushing blood in my veins
Cause today it will change
I said today it will change

We go tonight
What are you waiting for?
We go tonight
What are you waiting for?

If you've heard it enough, say say it again
If you've heard it enough, say say it again
If you've heard it enough, say say it again
If you've heard it enough, just say it again

And if we fall to pieces
Will you take this?
Will you take this love?

We go tonight

What are you waiting for?
We go tonight
What are you waiting for?

If you've heard it enough, say say it again
If you've heard it enough, say say it again
If you've heard it enough, just say it again
If you've heard it enough, just say it again
