

Until I Saw The Sea

Sleeping at Last

You knew my tears though I couldn't cry

I rest my fears in your hands
Day breathes
And falls across the ocean
You know my fears

The stars in the sky seem to notice your serenity
As February holds the glow in my eyes
Your promise remains unbroken
Your promise remains unbroken

I trust in you
I place these days into your hands

I am your child
I am your child
You were there to set me free
