

The Army Of One

Sleeping Giant

An antichrist agenda you will mark that day when you follow the idea of your God your own God in your own way

When all is finally finished and truth is finally dead you will deny any true form of sovereignty and follow you instead

Because we know when love has been extinguished in the purest form of memory and time we understand that self-preservation is the greatest law, the only law you need to abide

Because it is the highest order it is the highest order in the new dawn and it's the new dawn that we seek and there is no need, there will be no need for a savior because we know that God, truly God, is for the weak

We all knew this was coming but we never thought the we'd see, we finally see,
the final Christian bound ,
gagged,
mauled,
shot on our TV.
As the sun sets slowly, on this beautiful waking hour I smile and sigh, smug and sweetly because I watch our new government devour, the beasts devour.

And I watch these believers shrink back into the shadows where they belong I watch believers cower, and I know,
that what looks to be a dark day... oh it always gets darker right before the new light comes.
So I say:

"The banner is lifted!"

And I watched the masses adore Him!
And though the vision is distorted,
You can't quite remember The New World Order!
